Insunouncing the completion of this Superb Edition of the Works of the Great they have made to produce what they folly besieve to be the most beautiful and perfect edition ever issued at a price placing it within the reach, not only of the wealthy, but of persons of moderate means. Over $50,000 have been expended inits production, and it has eccupied the unremitting attention of Mr. Staunton for a period of over four years. The Illustrations are nown numerous, and are executed with a spirit and character never surpassed. The Text, it is believed, is excelled by none in purity, and the whole derives additional interest from the New Life of the Foct, by Mr. Staunton, curiched as it is by much new matter which has just been brought to hight in the Rolls Court, London, and hunded by Sir John Romily to Mr. Staunton for examination.
